The hounds brought from Fairmont to trail the incendiaries who fired a mining tipple at Weaver, near here, to-day picked up the scent from the handles of just which had contained oil, and followed the trail to the hame of Charles and Scott Martin, in that village.

The hounds walked directly from the tipple to the Martin home, where State tropers arrested the brothers. They were brought to Elkins and committed to jail in default of $5,000 bail each on a charge of arson.

The fire at the Weaver tipple of the Davis Coal and Coke Company was discovered by State policemen about midnight. An investigation disclosed that cill had been thrown about the mine scales and the tipple.

AUSTRIAN SERVICES CITY HALL FOUNTAIN

MENACED BY STRIKE

Police of the Oak street station are Railway, Postal and Telegraph going to be relentless with the youthful members of the Nickel and Dime Divers Union, Inc., Ltd., who have grown opulent by fetching for coins thrown by passersby into Mayor Hylan's fountain at the northwest corner of City Hall Park. All of yesterday afternoon the fountain was under the watchful eye of a policeman, who admitted that he did not want to give the boys from Mulberry Bend a chance to get started.
The unusual vigilance is a direct resuit of a happening one evening last week. On that occasion the homegoing throngs were startled when a half dozen unclad youths darted through their midst with a fleet footed policeman at their heels. One of the boys, who had been selected as clothes carrier, was almost overtaken by the policeman, and in his efforts to get away he left a trail of pants, blouses, shoes and stockings behind him, not to undergarments.

OWNED BY THE FINDER

Buffalo. N. Y., June 24.—Bars of silver worth $2,000 were returned by the police here to-day to Lewis Solomon, a street car conductor, who dug them up in a grove on the banks of the Niagara River in March. Several firms examined the bullion, but none could claim it as their and the mystery of its ownership has not been solved.

Solomon came upon the treasure while digging for fish worms. It was wrapped in an old newspaper and a bag and apparently had been under the ground for many cars. The date lines on the newspaper were not legible.

GREEN STAR RECEIVER

TO SELL EIGHT SHIPS

Approval May Be Received This Week.

Negotiations are under way for the sale of eight of the vessels of the Green Star Steamship Company, it was learned yesterday. These are in addition to the seven ships previously reported as about to be turned over to the J. H. W. Steele Steamship Company of Galveston for operation in the Gulf trade to Pacific coast ports. There are eighteen ships in the Green Star fleet, so all except three are accounted for. Regarding these there is a dispute over the title, to which the Shipping Board lays claim, and this will have to be decided by the courts, it is understood.

the Shipping Board lays claim, and this will have to be decided by the courts, it is understood.

Both the Dollar and Luckenbach steamship companies are known to have submitted offers for all or part of the eight vessels on sale. The negotiations have reached an advanced stage, and may be completed Monday, provided the court approves the action of the receiver, Robert C. Adams, and provided the committee of bondholders is also satisfied. This approval, it is understood, will be a matter of form.

All vessels are large freighters, averaging more than 5,000 deadweight tons. On nine the Equitable Trust Company, of which Mr. Adams is an official, holds mortgage bonds in large sums, and on the remainder the Shipping Board is the principal creditor. Seven of the Equitable ships are to be operated for the benefit of the bondholders and two sold; six of the Shipping Board vessels are to be sold, and possibly the remaining three, depending upon the action of the court.

DIFTY-THREE YEARS A PRIEST.

One of Brooklyn's oldest and most beloved priests—the Right Rev. Mgr. Joseph McNamee, rector of St. Teresa's Roman Catholic Church, Classon avenue and Sterling place, of which he is the founder—will observe to-day the fifty-third anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. He was ordained in 1869 by Bishop Whalen of Bombay, after having studied theology at Mount Mellery's, Ireland, and higher theology at All Hallows. After having-become a priest he volunteered for service in the American missions and came to the United States. The late Bishop Loughlin adopted him for the Brooklyn diocese and assigned him for the Church of Our Lady of Mercy. Schermerhorn street, where he remained for five years. Later he was assigned to found St. Teresa's parish, and here he established a reputation for his executive ability, besides erecting a church, rectory and parochial school. He also built St. Teresa's Convent, and in 1908 erected two steepies on the church and put in a set of chimes.
